30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

Paul's trust in God isn't based on his own merits, but on the Lord who, "will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom." Like the tax collector in today's gospel, Paul is not the subject of the sentence, he is the object, that is, the recipient of Christ's graciousness.

So, we ask ourselves:

- Do I subtly take credit for my good works, or do I see God as their source?
- What are my gifts to offer in God's service? Do I acknowledge and thank God for them.

Annual Parish Retreat 26 November

Listening With The Ear Of The Heart

Fr John Herbert, Abbot of the Benedictine Community of New Norcia, will share aspects of the 6th Century Rule of St Benedict. Through the centuries, this ancient document, which St Benedict referred to as a 'little rule for beginners' has been a source of inspiration and wisdom, not only for monks and nuns, but for all women and men who seek God.

We'll explore how the core monastic practices of prayer, work, spiritual reading, hospitality and community, along with underlying spiritual values such as humility, obedience, silence, solitude and stability nourish and sustain the Christian journey towards God.

Please join us on 26 Nov, 8.30am for a 9am start finishing at 1pm at St Dominic's school hall.

Please use the sign up sheet at the back of church.

Parish Social Group

We are seeking new members to join the social group. Please contact Fr Bernard.
