32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

Jesus not only praises the widow, but offers a lament for her situation. In addition, his words also contain good news. The poor may be overlooked by even the religious establishment, but God has noticed their situation. God can read the widow's heart & honours her. As far as the corrupt religious leadership who profit from her generosity, Jesus is the sign that God notices them as well and will deal with them.

So, we ask ourselves:

- When did God notice me in my poverty and come to my aide?
- Shall I stand on the side of Jesus and see, as he does, the neediest around me?

Baptisms

We welcome Jasmine Michele McFarlane, Rhys William McFarlane, & Liam Alexander McFarlane, daughter and sons of Ryan & Stacey into our parish community. These children will be baptised this weekend. May God continue to bless the McFarlane family.
