12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

There is much that affects our church these days: scandal on the inside and rejection and persecution from the outside. With the disciples we are tempted to ask Jesus, "Don't you care....?" Today's gospel directs us to turn to Christ, who cares for God's storm-tossed children and ask him to speak a word of calm over the powerful forces that distress us – "Quiet! Be still!"

So we ask ourselves:

- What turbulent forces in my life frighten me and test my faith?
- Have I invited Jesus to speak a word that will give me courage and inner calm?

Baptisms

We welcome Chloe Carmignani, Daughter of Daniel & Taryn, we also welcome Zalia Brown daughter of Graeme and Brook to our Parish community as these children were baptised this weekend. May God continue to bless Chole, Zalia and their families.

New Seniors' Group

The Parish would like to form a Seniors' Group and a volunteer is sought to help with co-ordinating the group. Please contact Fr Bernard if you can be of assistance.
