30th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

Jesus meets us where he found the blind Bartimaeus, by the roadside, also not seeing, or looking in the wrong direction for wisdom and insight. Today, for a moment, we have stopped to hear the Word of God and Jesus asking us, "What do you want me to do for you?" We answer from our present place, or life situation, "Master I want to see."

So, we ask ourselves:

- How would we respond to Jesus' question, "What do you want me to do for you?"
- Have we ever shared what He has done for us with another?

Baptisms

We welcome Alyia-Jean P Clifton-James, daughter of Andrew and Annie, and Marli Rose Benedetti, daughter of Andre and Teagan into our parish community. These children will be baptized this weekend.

May God continue to bless the Clifton-James and Benedetti families.

Next week's readings are at the back of each church.

Devotion to

Our Lady of the Rosary at home

We have resumed taking the Lady of the Rosary statue from house to house as it is an opportunity for families or individuals to place their intentions to Our Mother & draw closer to God through prayer at home. If you would like to have the statue, please contact Stanley Menezes (Mob 0417948994) or the Parish office. The Statue will be brought to your house on a Saturday morning by Stanley and will be collected back the following Saturday by him. With a good response from the parishioners, it will possibly be a visit of only one week in a year. We encourage you to experience the power of prayer through the devotion of Our Mother Mary at home.
