2nd Sunday of Lent

Reflection

We have come down from the mountain with Jesus and the three disciples. The mountaintop experience reveals Jesus to us and suggests the glory we will share with him at our own resurrection. Meanwhile, we "listen" to what he told his disciples, about our call to pick up his cross and follow his way of self-service, offering ourselves, as he did, for others.

So, we ask ourselves:

- Have we ever experienced a "Transfiguration," when we saw Christ shining through in an ordinary event?
- Perhaps life has gotten so "ordinary" for us that we miss the divine in the daily?

Liturgy of the Word on Zoom
