4th Sunday of Easter

Wishing all of our mothers a
Happy Mother's Day

Reflection:

In a competing and divided world, the Book of Revelation gives us a vision of our mutuality. We are interdependent; our present and our future are entwined. We cannot live lives of indifference and isolation; not if we plan to go before, "the one who sits on the throne" and be fed together at the same eternal banquet table.

So we ask ourselves:

- Do I share John's vision of the future unity of all peoples?
- What am I doing to heal divisions that I perceive around me?

Senior's Group

Meeting Tuesday 10 May, 10am at St Dominic's Hall. We hope to discuss more of our intentions and forthcoming activities, of course we value your input please.

Message from Father

After much prayer, reflection & consultation, we have decided to go back to the original Mass Times. I really valued the time I could spend talking to people before & after the Masses, (without hurrying to the other Church), & I will do my best to continue with this when the new MASS SCHEDULE begins on the weekend of 28/29 May.
