Ascension of the Lord

Reflection:

We are a people waiting. While we wait, we want to be Christ's servants to help bring about the completion of the kingdom of love, unity and justice he proclaimed. We both work for that goal and also keep a vigil for the coming of the Spirit anew into our lives on Pentecost. In our vigil we pray the prayer of the Book of Revelation, the last words of the New Testament, "Come, Lord Jesus."

So we ask ourselves:

- What gift of the Spirit will we ask for ourselves this Pentecost?
- What gift of the Spirit will we ask for our church? Our world?

Winter Appeal St V de Paul Society

Our 3 month Winter Appeal is now underway and parishioners are invited to take part to help people in our local community who face difficulties. Beanies, scarves, socks for adults/children and blankets are needed. Envelopes for donations are available in the rear of church which supports our Conference and non-perishable food can be left in the basket in each Church. If anyone can help with visitation, new members are welcome to come along and join us as our future remains uncertain. Thank you for your continued generosity & support which is much appreciated.
