27th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reflection:

Mustard seed faith is planted in us at our baptism. It is watered and cultured by family, friends and the worshiping community and so it grows. Great faith is already contained in the mustard seed. We tend to be preoccupied by size and quantity. We presume that we need a lot of faith to tackle the important issues in our lives and the world around us. This preoccupation can limit our whole-hearted, response to the tasks we disciples have before us.

So we ask ourselves:

- Have we ever used the excuse that our faith is weak and done nothing when we should have done something?
- Have we encouraged others in their faith? How?

Annual Parish Retreat 26 November

LISTENING WITH THE EAR OF THE HEART

Fr John Herbert, Abbot of the Benedictine Community of New Norcia, will share aspects of the 6th Century Rule of St Benedict. Through the centuries, this ancient document, which St Benedict referred to as a 'little rule for beginners' has been a source of inspiration and wisdom, not only for monks and nuns, but for all women and men who seek God. We'll explore how the core monastic practices of prayer, work, spiritual reading, hospitality and community, along with underlying spiritual values such as humility, obedience, silence, solitude and stability nourish and sustain the Christian journey towards God.

Please join us on 26 November, 8.30am for a 9am start finishing at 1pm.
